

INFLUENZA IN PRACTICE

Date: Wednesday, 7th April, 2021

Time: 7:30 - 8:30pm AEST

Influenza in Practice launched in 2020 as a series of short, powerful videos featuring Australian healthcare professionals who share an idea, experience or insightful opinion related to influenza and influenza vaccination. In 2021, we have four expert speakers including a nurse practitioner, travel specialist, cardiologist and research scientist whose talks we are bringing to you live.

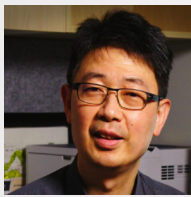

Introduction (5mins)

Program

The increased risk of cardiovascular complications caused by influenza. (10 mins)

Dr Kirsty Short is an Australian Research Council Discovery EARLY Research Award research fellow and head of the viral pathogenesis lab at the University of Queensland.

The importance of influenza vaccination in travellers, particularly during the COVID-19 pandemic. (10 mins)

Dr Sonny Lau is a Travel Medicine Expert practising at the Travel Doctor-TMVC Melbourne. His special interest is tropical diseases in returned travellers.

The benefits of involving Nurse Practitioners for your medical centre's influenza vaccination service. (10 mins)

Ms Catherine Keil is a Nurse Practitioner based in Adelaide specialising in travel health and immunisations. In 2018 Catherine set up Travel Health Practitioner Pty Ltd and consults out of Angaston Medical Centre.
