

Practice Managers Professional Network

For primary care practice managers

Northern Queensland Primary Health Network (NQPHN) and George Sotiris from Health Industry Employment Services (HIES) invite practice managers to join us for discussions on the latest topics and insights in general practice.

Created with the passion of educating and supporting businesses through the complex employment framework in Australia, HIES believe that all businesses require professional support from industry specialists from time to time. The HIES Team intend to understand your practice's operations and provide tailored employment advice.

NQPHN encourages practice managers to utilise this opportunity to provide feedback, raise what is needed to help address some of the long-standing issues in primary care management, and discuss how NQPHN can support practice managers and frontline staff.

This is a free event; however, registrations are essential.

Lunch, tea, and coffee will be provided.
