Mental Health Upskilling for Rural GPs and GPs with Mental Health Advanced Skills

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

James Cook University warmly invites you to a continuing professional development (CPD) workshop - Mental Health Upskilling for Rural GPs and GPs with Mental Health Advanced Skills.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Join us for this interactive upskilling workshop. The sessions are case based with a "non metro" focus, recognising the wider scope of practice of GPs working outside the cities.

Topics include mental health assessment and mental health emergencies in primary care, child and adolescent health, perinatal mental health and mental health in older adults.

WHO CAN ATTEND?

GPs working in remote, rural and regional locations, and GPs with a Mental Health Advanced Skill.

ACCREDITATION

James Cook University will apply for Category 1 RACGP and ACRRM points. Accreditation for maintenance of focused psychological strategies skills will also be applied for.

BURSARIES

To help support the costs of attending, the Northern Queensland Primary Health Network (NQPHN) are offering a limited number bursaries ($400 per person) to eligible GPs who are based in Cairns, Mackay and Townsville. Apply here.

Attendees may also be eligible for bursaries provided by the Health Workforce Queensland as part of Round 4 which are available for application between 7 and 20 November 2022. Apply here.
